50X1-HUM

1. Antiaircraft exercises took place at Gdynia daily between 2 and 9 June 1953. Antiaircraft, naval and air force units took part in these exercises; they included:
 - a. A coastal artillery unit from Redlowo.
 - b. An unidentified antiaircraft unit consisting of five guns, which at the time of the exercises took up a firing position in Gdynia on Wzgorze Foch.
 - c. Unidentified floating naval units.
2. From the air six jet aircraft attacked the bay and Wzgorze Foch; they flew in separately and in a group of six. When attacking in a group, one plane always kept at a certain distance away to one side, and at a higher altitude. On the 8th and 9th, and during the night of the 8th and 9th of June 1953, heavy gun fire could be heard from the open sea.
